Post Title: Cla	ss Teacher
School: Wid	kford Primary School
Teachers pay & Co the specific require	uties of teachers, (other than the Headteacher) are set out in the School inditions Document and describe the duties required of all teachers. In addition, ments of the post of classroom teacher, along with the particular duties st holder have been set out below:
Purpose	To act with honesty and integrity; have strong subject knowledge, to keep knowledge and skills as teachers up-to-date; to be self-critical; forge positive professional relationships; and work with parents in the best interests of their pupils. Responsibility for a class
Responsible to:	Head Teacher, Deputy Head Teacher.
Responsible for:	The general professional duties of all teachers as contained within the contract of employment To be responsible for the management, organisation and development of a subject in the key stage.
Salary/Grade:	Mainscale
Main Core duties: Class teacher	<ul> <li>To set high expectations which inspire, motivate and challenge pupils</li> <li>establish a safe and stimulating environment for pupils, rooted in mutual respect</li> <li>set goals that stretch and challenge pupils of all backgrounds, abilities and dispositions</li> <li>demonstrate consistently the positive attitudes, values and behaviour which are expected of pupils.</li> <li>To promote good progress and outcomes by all pupils</li> <li>be accountable for pupils' attainment, progress and outcomes</li> <li>plan teaching to build on pupils' capabilities and prior knowledge</li> <li>guide pupils to reflect on the progress they have made and their emerging needs</li> <li>demonstrate knowledge and understanding of how pupils learn and</li> <li>how this impacts on teaching</li> <li>encourage pupils to take a responsible and conscientious attitude to their own work and study.</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>use of standard English, whatever the teacher's specialist subject</li> <li>To plan and teach well-structured lessons <ul> <li>impart knowledge and develop understanding through effective use of lesson time</li> <li>promote a love of learning and children's intellectual curiosity</li> <li>set homework and plan other out-of-class activities to consolidate and extend the knowledge and understanding pup have acquired</li> <li>reflect systematically on the effectiveness of lessons and approaches to teaching</li> <li>contribute to the design and provision of an engaging curricult within the relevant subject area(s).</li> </ul> </li> <li>To adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all pupils</li> <li>know when and how to differentiate appropriately, using approaches which enable pupils to be taught effectively</li> <li>have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>curriculum</li> <li>areas, foster and maintain pupils' interest in the subject, and address misunderstandings</li> <li>demonstrate a critical understanding of developments in the subject and curriculum areas, and promote the value of scholarship</li> <li>demonstrate an understanding of and take responsibility for promoting high standards of literacy, articulacy and the correcuse of standard English, whatever the teacher's specialist subject</li> <li>To plan and teach well-structured lessons</li> <li>impart knowledge and develop understanding through effectivuse of lesson time</li> <li>promote a love of learning and children's intellectual curiosity</li> <li>set homework and plan other out-of-class activities to consolidate and extend the knowledge and understanding puphave acquired</li> <li>reflect systematically on the effectiveness of lessons and approaches to teaching</li> <li>contribute to the design and provision of an engaging curricule within the relevant subject area(s).</li> </ul> To adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all pupils <ul> <li>know when and how to differentiate appropriately, using approaches which enable pupils to be taught effectively</li> <li>have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit pupils' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these</li> <li>demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development</li> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach</li> </ul>	To demo	nstrate good subject and curriculum knowledge
<ul> <li>address misunderstandings</li> <li>demonstrate a critical understanding of developments in the subject and curriculum areas, and promote the value of scholarship</li> <li>demonstrate an understanding of and take responsibility for promoting high standards of literacy, articulacy and the correcuse of standard English, whatever the teacher's specialist subject</li> <li>To plan and teach well-structured lessons</li> <li>impart knowledge and develop understanding through effective use of lesson time</li> <li>promote a love of learning and children's intellectual curiosity</li> <li>set homework and plan other out-of-class activities to consolidate and extend the knowledge and understanding pup have acquired</li> <li>reflect systematically on the effectiveness of lessons and approaches to teaching</li> <li>contribute to the design and provision of an engaging curricult within the relevant subject area(s).</li> </ul> To adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all pupils <ul> <li>know when and how to differentiate appropriately, using approaches which enable pupils to be taught effectively</li> <li>have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit pupils' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these</li> <li>demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development</li> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; tho with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach</li> </ul>		curriculum
<ul> <li>subject and curriculum areas, and promote the value of scholarship</li> <li>demonstrate an understanding of and take responsibility for promoting high standards of literacy, articulacy and the correct use of standard English, whatever the teacher's specialist subject</li> <li>To plan and teach well-structured lessons</li> <li>impart knowledge and develop understanding through effectiv use of lesson time</li> <li>promote a love of learning and children's intellectual curiosity</li> <li>set homework and plan other out-of-class activities to consolidate and extend the knowledge and understanding pup have acquired</li> <li>reflect systematically on the effectiveness of lessons and approaches to teaching</li> <li>contribute to the design and provision of an engaging curricult within the relevant subject area(s).</li> <li>To adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all pupils</li> <li>know when and how to differentiate appropriately, using approaches which enable pupils to be taught effectively</li> <li>have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit pupils' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these</li> <li>demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development</li> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; tho with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach</li> </ul>		address misunderstandings
<ul> <li>demonstrate an understanding of and take responsibility for promoting high standards of literacy, articulacy and the correct use of standard English, whatever the teacher's specialist subject</li> <li>To plan and teach well-structured lessons</li> <li>impart knowledge and develop understanding through effectiv use of lesson time</li> <li>promote a love of learning and children's intellectual curiosity</li> <li>set homework and plan other out-of-class activities to consolidate and extend the knowledge and understanding pup have acquired</li> <li>reflect systematically on the effectiveness of lessons and approaches to teaching</li> <li>contribute to the design and provision of an engaging curricult within the relevant subject area(s).</li> <li>To adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all pupils</li> <li>know when and how to differentiate appropriately, using approaches which enable pupils to be taught effectively</li> <li>have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit pupils' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these</li> <li>demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development</li> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; tho with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach</li> </ul>	•	subject and curriculum areas, and promote the value of
<ul> <li>impart knowledge and develop understanding through effective use of lesson time</li> <li>promote a love of learning and children's intellectual curiosity</li> <li>set homework and plan other out-of-class activities to consolidate and extend the knowledge and understanding put have acquired</li> <li>reflect systematically on the effectiveness of lessons and approaches to teaching</li> <li>contribute to the design and provision of an engaging curricult within the relevant subject area(s).</li> </ul> To adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all pupils <ul> <li>know when and how to differentiate appropriately, using approaches which enable pupils to be taught effectively</li> <li>have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit pupils' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these</li> <li>demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development</li> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; the with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach</li></ul>	•	demonstrate an understanding of and take responsibility for promoting high standards of literacy, articulacy and the correc use of standard English, whatever the teacher's specialist
<ul> <li>use of lesson time</li> <li>promote a love of learning and children's intellectual curiosity</li> <li>set homework and plan other out-of-class activities to consolidate and extend the knowledge and understanding pur have acquired</li> <li>reflect systematically on the effectiveness of lessons and approaches to teaching</li> <li>contribute to the design and provision of an engaging curricult within the relevant subject area(s).</li> </ul> To adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all pupils <ul> <li>know when and how to differentiate appropriately, using approaches which enable pupils to be taught effectively</li> <li>have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit pupils' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these</li> <li>demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development</li> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; the with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach</li> </ul>	To plan a	and teach well-structured lessons
<ul> <li>set homework and plan other out-of-class activities to consolidate and extend the knowledge and understanding pur have acquired</li> <li>reflect systematically on the effectiveness of lessons and approaches to teaching</li> <li>contribute to the design and provision of an engaging curricult within the relevant subject area(s).</li> </ul> To adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all pupils <ul> <li>know when and how to differentiate appropriately, using approaches which enable pupils to be taught effectively</li> <li>have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit pupils' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these</li> <li>demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development</li> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; the with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approaches</li> </ul>	•	impart knowledge and develop understanding through effectiv use of lesson time
<ul> <li>consolidate and extend the knowledge and understanding pup have acquired</li> <li>reflect systematically on the effectiveness of lessons and approaches to teaching</li> <li>contribute to the design and provision of an engaging curricult within the relevant subject area(s).</li> </ul> To adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all pupils <ul> <li>know when and how to differentiate appropriately, using approaches which enable pupils to be taught effectively</li> <li>have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit pupils' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these</li> <li>demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development <ul> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; tho with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approaches</li> </ul></li></ul>
<ul> <li>reflect systematically on the effectiveness of lessons and approaches to teaching</li> <li>contribute to the design and provision of an engaging curricult within the relevant subject area(s).</li> <li>To adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all pupils</li> <li>know when and how to differentiate appropriately, using approaches which enable pupils to be taught effectively</li> <li>have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit pupils' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these</li> <li>demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development</li> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; the with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach</li> </ul>	•	consolidate and extend the knowledge and understanding pup
<ul> <li>contribute to the design and provision of an engaging curricult within the relevant subject area(s).</li> <li>To adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all pupils</li> <li>know when and how to differentiate appropriately, using approaches which enable pupils to be taught effectively</li> <li>have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit pupils' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these</li> <li>demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development</li> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; the with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach</li> </ul>		reflect systematically on the effectiveness of lessons and
<ul> <li>within the relevant subject area(s).</li> <li>To adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all pupils</li> <li>know when and how to differentiate appropriately, using approaches which enable pupils to be taught effectively</li> <li>have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit pupils' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these</li> <li>demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development</li> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; the with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach</li> </ul>		•
<ul> <li>know when and how to differentiate appropriately, using approaches which enable pupils to be taught effectively</li> <li>have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit pupils' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these</li> <li>demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development</li> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; the with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach</li> </ul>	·
<ul> <li>approaches which enable pupils to be taught effectively</li> <li>have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit pupils' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these</li> <li>demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development</li> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; tho with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach</li> </ul>	To adapt	teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all pupils
<ul> <li>have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit pupils' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these</li> <li>demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development</li> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; the with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>inhibit pupils' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these</li> <li>demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development</li> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; tho with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development</li> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; the with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach</li> </ul>	•	inhibit pupils' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these
<ul> <li>teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development</li> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; the with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach</li> </ul>	•	demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and
<ul> <li>have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; tho with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach</li> </ul>		teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of those with special educational needs; those of high ability; the with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach	•	•
		those with special educational needs; those of high ability; the with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approach

-
To make accurate and productive use of assessment
<ul> <li>know and understand how to assess the relevant subject and curriculum areas, including statutory assessment requirements</li> <li>make use of formative and summative assessment to secure pupils' progress</li> <li>use relevant data to monitor progress, set targets, and plan subsequent lessons</li> <li>give pupils regular feedback, both orally and through accurate marking, and encourage pupils to respond to the feedback.</li> </ul>
To manage behaviour effectively to ensure a good and safe learning environment
<ul> <li>have clear rules and routines for behaviour in classrooms, and take responsibility for promoting good and courteous behaviour both in classrooms and around the school, in accordance with the school's behaviour policy</li> <li>have high expectations of behaviour, and establish a framework for discipline with a range of strategies, using praise, sanctions and rewards consistently and fairly</li> <li>manage classes effectively, using approaches which are appropriate to pupils' needs in order to involve and motivate them</li> <li>maintain good relationships with pupils, exercise appropriate authority, and act decisively when necessary.</li> </ul>
To fulfil wider professional responsibilities
<ul> <li>make a positive contribution to the wider life and ethos of the school</li> <li>develop effective professional relationships with colleagues, knowing how and when to draw on advice and specialist support</li> <li>deploy support staff effectively</li> <li>take responsibility for improving teaching through appropriate professional development, responding to advice and feedback from colleagues</li> <li>Communicate effectively with parents with regard to pupils' achievements and well-being.</li> </ul>
To ensure that the safeguarding of pupils is a priority at all times
<ul> <li>to follow school protocols in safeguarding pupils</li> <li>to ensure that you are up to date with safeguarding protocols, including taking responsibility for keeping training up to date</li> <li>to report any concerns regarding pupils or adults to the named person</li> </ul>

Assessment	<ul> <li>To liaise with assessment leader to manage requirements for the given subject assessments and report as necessary to leadership team, local authority and DfE.</li> <li>Keeping up to date assessments on the development, progress and attainment of pupils and recording and reporting these assessments in line with the school Assessment Policies across the key stage</li> <li>Administering assessment tasks and tests in line with school policy</li> </ul>
Other activities	<ul> <li>To promote the positive ethos and culture of the school to other staff, governors, parents. Children and members of the wider community.</li> <li>Contribute to and support the overall ethos/work/aims of the school.</li> <li>Comply with, support and promote all school policies and procedures, particularly those relating to child protection, equal opportunities, racial equality, health, safety and security, confidentiality, behaviour and data protection, reporting concerns to the Head Teacher.</li> <li>Be aware of and support pupil differences and ensure that all pupils have equal access to all school opportunities to learn and develop.</li> <li>Keep records and make reports on the personal and social needs of pupils.</li> <li>Communicate and co-operate with other agencies to support the educational, development/general progress and well-being of individual pupils and to participate in meetings arranged for any purposes described above.</li> <li>To inform the Head Teacher immediately of any concerns regarding a pupil's welfare.</li> <li>To participate in staff meetings which relate to the curriculum, administration or organisation of the school day and after the lunch break.</li> <li>To supervise pupils throughout the school day and after the lunch break.</li> <li>To supervise pupils throughout the school during playtimes and at any other times requested by the Head Teacher.</li> <li>To attend and support some school functions</li> <li>To carry out any duties reasonably requested by the Head Teacher or Deputy Head Teacher.</li> <li>The duties may be varied to meet changed circumstances in a manner compatible with the post held, at the reasonable direction of the Head Teacher.</li> </ul>