

JOB DESCRIPTION TEACHER OF THE DEAF

Responsible to: Headteacher

DUTIES:

The Conditions of Employment for School Teachers specify the general professional duties of all teachers. In addition, certain particular duties are reasonably required to be exercised and completed in a satisfactory manner.

PARTICULAR DUTIES:

- To be responsible, as appropriate, for the leadership, management and organisation of the Resource Base
- To be responsible for a group of Hearing Impaired pupils, working in mainstream and within the Resource Base

MAIN ACTIVITIES ATTRIBUTABLE TO DUTIES:

1. To display good teaching practice in line with the aims and objectives of the School Policy.
2. To share responsibility with colleagues for promoting and safeguarding the welfare of pupils at the school
3. To carry out statutory assessment requirements in line with Government Policy and work closely with the Special Needs Support Service, the Educational Psychology Service and School Staff.
4. To contribute to reviews and reassessments and provide information to parents.
5. To liaise with relevant teaching staff so that progress is carefully monitored.
6. To work closely with colleagues in the planning and preparation of work, assessment and record-keeping of individual education programmes to enhance children's progress and their access to the National Curriculum.
7. To assist with providing INSET within the school.

COORDINATION:

- Ensuring consistent agreed policy throughout the school.
- Ensuring that targets in the School Development Plan related to the area are achieved.

MONITORING AND REVIEW:

- Monitoring and reviewing policy, practise and provision
- Involving all staff in the review and development of policy
- Monitoring and evaluating children's progress and achievements in the Resource Base.

THE RESPONSIBILITY MUST:

- Impact on educational progress beyond the teacher's assigned pupils
- Involve leading, developing and enhancing the teaching practice of others
- Involve accountability for leading, managing and developing the Resource Base.