Dear Candidate,

Thank you for your interest in the headteacher position at Long Ridings Primary School.

Long Ridings Primary School is a maintained, two-form entry school for children from four to eleven years, with a current pupil population of just under 420. The September 2020 Foundation intake will be the maximum of sixty, as recommended for Essex Primary schools. During the last three Ofsted inspections, the School was rated as being “good” and, in the most recent (i.e. March 2019), the Inspector’s comments indicated significant progress having been made towards achieving those objectives which had previously been identified as priorities.

The Headteacher of more than ten years standing left the school in May of this year and has been replaced by an interim appointee. The teaching and support staff are well-established, highly experienced and thoroughly committed to the School and its pupils. Long Ridings has a long-established history of employing NQTs, many of whom have remained in post well beyond their introductory years in the profession, having risen through the ranks.

The School is located in an attractive suburban area of Brentwood, a short distance outside the M25 corridor, with excellent road and rail communications close at hand. Unusually for a suburban school, it has the benefit of substantial green areas which are used for a range of sporting and other outdoor activities and which are private and secure. On part of those grounds, there is an independently owned and operated nursery with which the School works closely.

There is a very active and highly supportive Parents’ Association which arranges numerous fund-raising activities throughout the year with great success and to the considerable benefit of the pupils. The Governing Board is proactive and works closely with the Headteacher and Senior Leadership Team to ensure governors fulfil their remit and to support those strategic goals which, together, they have developed to ensure the continuing well-being and advancement of the School, its pupils and its staff, maintaining a close, responsible relations with parents and carers.

The individual should be emotionally mature, with the ability to engage and build strong relationships with all the stakeholders, i.e. pupils, parents/carers, staff, governors, other agencies and the wider community. They should be an inspiring practitioner, with a thorough understanding of excellence in primary teaching practice and the knowledge and skills to drive innovative teaching and learning strategies, developing staff and achieving the best possible outcomes for all.

Visits to the school are encouraged and warmly welcomed.
