To maintain good order, discipline and respect for others among pupils; to promote understanding of the school's rules and values; to safeguard health and safety; and to develop relationships with and between pupils conducive to optimum learning.

(v) Communication with parents

To build and maintain co-operative relationships with parents, and to communicate with them on pupils' learning and progress, drawing attention to special skills and talents as well as to problems or difficulties.

(vi) The Classroom

To maintain an attractive and stimulating classroom environment, and to contribute to displays in the school as a whole.

(vii) Overall policy and review

To take part in whole-school reviews of policy and aims, and in the revision or formulation of guidelines.

(viii) Reports

To provide or contribute to oral and written assessments, reports and references, both at school and elsewhere, relating to the development and learning of individual pupils and groups of pupils.

(ix) Review

To evaluate and review one's own teaching methods, materials and schemes of work, and to make changes as appropriate.

(x) Professional development

To keep up-to-date with current educational thinking and practice, both by study and by attendance at courses, workshops and meetings, and take part in appraisals and reviews of one's work arranged by the headteacher.

(xi) Corporate life

To take part in the corporate life of the school by, for example, attending assemblies, registering the attendance of pupils, and supervising pupils before and after school sessions.

(xii) Equality policies

To help ensure that subject-matter and learning resources reflect Borough and school policies on race and gender equality, and that the implications of these policies are borne in mind in relation to all the tasks and duties listed in (i) - (xii) above.

(xiii) Safeguarding

To show commitment to the school's policies on safeguarding children.
