New Hall School

Catholic independent HMC boarding & day school (1-18) for 1,500 students
The Avenue, Boreham, Chelmsford, CM3 3HS

New Hall School requires, from 1 January 2022, or earlier:

Teacher of French & Spanish

Competitive salary: £38,771-£49,307pa

Excellent benefits & CPD; generous School fee remission; accommodation available

Due to the popularity of our language diploma programme and the increased provision for subject-specialist French and Spanish teaching within our Preparatory Division, we are seeking a well qualified Teacher of French & Spanish to join our vibrant French and Spanish Departments.

The successful candidate will be able to inspire students with a passion for language learning, through the curriculum, academic societies and co-curricular opportunities and will offer either French or Spanish to A Level, with the other language to at least GCSE. They will also be committed to providing opportunities for students to undertake language visits overseas.

Teacher training will be provided to a successful candidate, if required.

New Hall is committed to increasing numbers of staff from minority ethnic backgrounds across all roles and at all levels, to reflect our diverse student population. Applications from practising Catholics are particularly welcome. The School's Equal Opportunities Policy is available on the School's website.

Closing Date: Midday, Monday 27 September 2021

Early applications are encouraged and interviews may take place on a rolling basis
