Section 8 – Criminal records

An offer of employment is conditional upon the School receiving an Enhanced Disclosure from the DBS which the School considers to be satisfactory. If you are successful in your application you will be required to complete a Disclosure and Barring Service Application Form. Any information disclosed will be handled in accordance with the code of practice published by the Disclosure and Barring Service (a copy of which is available from the School on request).

The School is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and therefore all convictions, cautions, reprimands and final warnings (including those which would normally be considered "spent" under the Act) must be declared. If you have a criminal record this will not automatically debar you from employment. Instead, each case will be assessed fairly by reference to the School's objective assessment procedure (a copy of which is available from the School on request).

Have you been convicted by the courts of any criminal offence? Yes ☐ No ☐

Is there any relevant court action pending against you? Yes ☐ No ☐

Have you ever received a caution, reprimand or final warning from the police? Yes ☐ No ☐

If 'YES' to any of the above, please provide details on using the Self Disclosure form (SD2) which is on the Widford Lodge website, and send this in a sealed envelope marked "confidential" with your Application Form.

Section 9 – References

Please supply the names and contact details of two people who we may contact for references. One of these must be your current or most recent employer. If your current/most recent employment does/did not involve work with children, then your second referee should be from your employer with whom you most recently worked with children. Neither referee should be a relative or someone known to you solely as a friend. The School intends to take up references from all shortlisted candidates before interview.

Section 10 – Recruitment

It is the School's policy to employ the best qualified personnel and to provide equal opportunity for the advancement of employees including promotion and training and not to discriminate against any person because of their race, colour, national or ethnic origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital or civil partnership status, religion or religious belief, disability or age. All new posts within the School are subject to a probationary period.

The School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

A copy of the School's Recruitment Policy is enclosed with this Application Form. Please take the time to read it.

If your application is successful, the School will retain the information provided in this form (together with any attachments) on your personnel file. If your application is unsuccessful, all documentation relating to your application will normally be confidentially destroyed after six months.

Short Form Privacy Notice For Application Forms

This notice explains what personal data we will hold about you, how we collect it, and how we will use and may share information about you during the application process. We are required to notify you of this information, under data protection legislation.

Please ensure that you read this notice as well as our privacy notice which can be found on our website and which details how we use your information.

Why Do We Collect This Information?

Once you have submitted an application form, the school use this information in order to take a decision on recruitment and to take steps to enter into a contract.

What Information Do We Collect?

We may collect any of the information from the application form in order to take a decision as to recruitment.

How we may share the information

We may also need to share some of the above categories of personal information with other parties, such as HR consultants and professional advisers. Usually, information will be anonymised but this may not always be possible. The recipient of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations. We may also be required to share some personal information as required to comply with the law.

How long we keep your information

We keep the personal information that we obtain about you during the recruitment process for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which it is processed. How long we keep your information will depend on whether your application is successful and you become employed by us, the nature of the information concerned and the purposes for which it is processed. Full details on how long we keep personal data for is set out in our data retention policy.
