

Westcliff High School
for Boys

JOB DESCRIPTION

TEACHER OF RELIGIOUS STUDIES

INTRODUCTION

The Religious Studies Department at Westcliff High School for Boys (WHSB) is a high performing Department with a significant number of students taking the subject at both GCSE and A Level. Currently, there are three groups of pupils who have chosen Religious Studies as an option in both Years 10 and 11. At A Level, there are around 35 students studying Religious Studies. These numbers have remained consistent in recent times and have not been affected by curriculum reform to A Level and GCSE courses. The Department plays an important role in the extra-curricular life of the School and consists of two full-time members of staff who share teaching across the Key Stages.

ACCOMMODATION AND FACILITIES

The Religious Studies Department is well-equipped. There are two dedicated rooms with projectors, displays of students' work and other valuable Teaching & Learning resources; creating a positive atmosphere for study. Class textbooks are available for all Year groups together with other written resources, texts, DVDs, a digital library, religious artefacts and a dedicated section in the School Library.

CURRICULUM

Pupils in Years 7 to 9 have three periods of Religious Studies per two-week cycle (60 periods). During this time, they will study Christianity, Judaism, Islam, Sikhism and Buddhism. The material covered is in accordance with the Essex Agreed Syllabus, with further guidance provided by the Southend SACRE, and also introduces pupils to Philosophy.

In Years 10 and 11, the Religious Studies classes have five periods per two-week cycle. All groups follow the OCR GCSE syllabus where they study two religions in depth, currently Buddhism and Christianity, examined in two papers. They also study aspects of Philosophy and Ethics which are examined in a third paper.

In the Sixth Form, the new OCR A Level syllabus is followed and students sit three papers at the end of the Upper Sixth, comprising of: Philosophy of Religion, Religious Ethics and Development of Christian Thought.

EXAMINATION RESULTS

Results in all public examinations are excellent and those who choose to continue studying Religion at University generally do so at established Universities, including the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge. In Summer 2020, at GCSE, 84% of pupils at WHSB attained Grades 9-7 (29% at 9). At Advanced Level, 100% of students achieved A*-B (16% at A*). In Summer 2019, results were also impressive with 77% Grades 9-7 (23% at 9) at GCSE and 86% A* - B at Advanced Level.
