Do you share our determination to give the most vulnerable children and young people the best chances to succeed and thrive in their adult lives?

We are seeking to appoint a dynamic and enthusiastic Associate Tutor to support young people who have experienced difficulty in learning in mainstream education and to help our student develop confidence, skills and knowledge to believe that they can be successful in their own lives. This person will also support delivering our Outreach Programme, working with mainstream schools, sharing expertise and mentoring staff to support students at risk of permanent exclusion.
