

Ofsted (Academic Year 2017-2018) said...

‘The high expectations and dedication of the headteacher are shared by staff and governors.’

‘Leaders and governors have an accurate view of what the school does.’

‘The school is well placed to improve further.’

‘The stimulating curriculum and wide range of enrichment activities provide high-quality learning opportunities.’

‘Leaders prepare pupils well for life in modern Britain’

‘Pupils treat each other and adults with respect and show positive attitudes towards their learning.’

‘Attendance is now above the national average for all pupil groups.’

‘Pupils are safe and well cared for.’

‘Writing progress is significantly above that made by pupils nationally.’

‘The quality of teaching, learning and assessment is good.’

‘The curriculum is stimulating.’

‘Pupils feel safe in school. They know that they can trust school staff and talk to them about any concerns they may have.’

‘Pupils have a good understanding of how to keep themselves safe.’

‘The behaviour of pupils is good.’

‘Pupils currently in the school, in all year groups, are making at least good.’