Thank you for expressing an interest in the advertised post of class LSA. This a great opportunity to join our Early Years Learning Support Team. The position is from 8.30am to 3.30pm each day and will include 1-hour unpaid lunch break.

I hope that you have managed to take a look around our school and had your questions answered. If you would like to find out a little more about our school, please log onto our website: www.abacusprimaryschool.co.uk

Interviews are scheduled for: week beginning 6/5/24. Following shortlisting, successful candidates will be contacted via email with details of their interview.

I would encourage you to come along and visit our school, ideally during the school day, as you really need to see the school in action to appreciate just how wonderful our children are and our pupils would love to give you a tour.

Based on the quality and quantity of applications received, we reserve the right to close this vacancy sooner than the specified closing date. Therefore, early applications are encouraged.

Should you have any questions regarding this post, please feel free to email me on head@abacus.essex.sch.uk I look forward to receiving your application.
