

New Hall School requires, as soon as possible:

French Assistant

£24,448-£28,548pa Excellent benefits & CPD; option of accommodation

A full time French Assistant is required to assist with the teaching of French across the School. Working mainly with students in Years 9-13, the French Assistant will help students in their preparation for the oral component of public examinations (GCSE, A Level, or DELF). The French Assistant will also be required to assist the teaching of French from Years 5-13. The French Assistant will also work with students who speak French as a first language.

The successful candidate will be able to inspire students with a passion for language learning, through the curriculum, academic societies and co-curricular opportunities. They will offer French to the level of a first language speaker and will assist with language visits overseas and language holiday camps.

New Hall is committed to increasing numbers of staff from ethnic minority backgrounds across all roles and at all levels, to reflect our diverse student population. Applications from practising Catholics are particularly welcome. The Equal Opportunities Policy is available on our website.

Closing Date: Midday, Wednesday 29 September 2021 Early applications are encouraged, interviews may take place on a rolling basis
