

THE RAMSEY ACADEMY, HALSTEAD

LEARNING SUPPORT ASSISTANT

At The Ramsey Academy, Halstead we believe that students with special educational needs have the same entitlement to a broad and balanced curriculum as any other student; that all students are valued equally; have the opportunity to develop their own skills to the greatest extent possible and, that parents are entitled to be consulted to ensure an effective partnership between home and School.

The Ramsey Academy, Halstead SEN Policy

As a result of this belief, the needs of students are met within the classroom, wherever and whenever possible, with and without in-class support, provided by the Learning Support Team. The team is led by the SENCO - Susannah Muir, and nine assistants covering about 120 students on the SEN register.

A formula is used to allocate the support for students within all the learning areas of the school. Non-teaching assistants work during the five lessons of the normal school day and the timetable for all assistants is drawn up after discussion with each assistant, using their subject strengths and interests. All assistants work across the Key Stages, with a variety of students, to enable the students to develop as independent learners, and not become dependent on one assistant.

Work will consist of a variety of tasks including some or all of the following:

- In-class support for students with learning difficulties and/or behavioural/emotional difficulties.
- In-class support for students with physical difficulties.
- Withdrawal lessons of small groups of students for basic literacy skills.
- Withdrawal lessons of small groups of students for developing social skills.
- Acting as a reader during exams for students with special consideration.
- Acting as a scribe during exams for students with special consideration.
- Monitoring of progress for specific targets from Individual Education Plans.
- Attending review meetings.

In-class support may consist of a variety of tasks, after negotiation with the subject teacher and Line Manager, for example:

- Acting as a scribe.
- Acting as a reader.
- Assisting the student with staying on task.
- Breaking tasks down into smaller, more manageable units.
- Acting as an interpreter of tasks.

The main requirements for this post are a sense of flexibility, tolerance and a sense of humour. Meeting the needs of students may involve instant changes to the timetable or schedule for the day. Applicants also need to be educated to GCSE Grade C or above, or the equivalent.

In service training will be available according to the needs of the individual.
