Thank you for expressing an interest in the advertised position of SEN Learning Support Assistant. This is an exciting opportunity to join our Learning Support Team and to work with a lovely pupil in our Foundation Stage who has Autism. This position is for 21.15 hours a week, across 5 days from 8.45am to 11.45am in the morning and then 12.45pm to 2pm in the afternoon.

We are looking for a committed and enthusiastic individual to support an individual child and work in partnership with their class teacher, Learning Support Assistant, Parents, Specialist Teacher Team and SENCo.

Unfortunately we are unable to offer tours around our school at this time, due to the current restrictions, if you would like to find out a little more about our school, please log onto our website www.abacusprimaryschool.co.uk Should you have any further questions we are happy to offer you an informal telephone conversation or to arrange a Zoom meeting please contact the school office on 01268 571018

The closing date for this position is: Monday 16th November at midday/

We will contact successful candidates via email and text message, so please ensure you provide us with a valid email address and mobile telephone number on your application form.
