New Hall School

Catholic independent HMC boarding & day school (1-18) for 1,350 students
The Avenue, Boreham, Chelmsford, Essex, CM3 3HS

New Hall School requires, on a one-year fixed term basis:

Computer Science Graduate

Salary range is £24,733pa-£28,833pa

Excellent benefits & CPD; possibility of single accommodation; full funding for PGCE

A well-qualified graduate is required to teach Computer Science from Year 7 to A Level. The successful candidate will assist the Head of Computer Science in the delivery of a rich and varied programme. They will be able to inspire students with a passion for Computer Science, through the curriculum and co-curriculum. The School has a strong track record in teacher training which, if required, will be fully funded and delivered in partnership with the University of Buckingham. New Hall has been at the forefront of developing and integrating blended learning platforms; this is an exciting time to be joining the School as we continue to invest in digital learning and the development of our STEM provision. Following completion of the PGCE/training year, there will be the possibility to apply for an ECT role at New Hall.

New Hall is committed to increasing the number of staff from ethnic minorities, across all roles and at all levels, to reflect our diverse student population. Applications from practising Catholics are particularly welcome. The Equal Opportunities Policy can be found on the website.

Applications considered on a rolling basis until midday, Monday 15 August 2022
