Before ticking the appropriate box below please read the definition of disability.

The definition of disability, as outlined in the Equality Act 2010 is as follows: “a physical or mental impairment which has a “substantial” and “long term” negative effect on a person’s ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities”.

To be protected under the Act:

- An individual must have an impairment which can be physical or mental.
- It has to be substantial, that is something more than minor or trivial.
- It needs to be long term i.e. the impairment has lasted or is likely to last in total for at least twelve months or more, or is likely to last for the rest of the life of the person affected (long term includes conditions which fluctuate or may recur such as cancer, HIV/AIDS and multiple sclerosis) and
- It must affect their day-to-day activities on a regular basis (day-to-day activities includes things such as reading, lifting and carrying objects, personal care, shopping, meeting and communicating with people).

Do you consider yourself to have a disability?
